"Brahman bull and cow" 1967 – Painting: acryl on board – 167x063 cm

Provenance:

Acquired by first owner directly from Lucas SITHOLE in 1973

Background story

as reported by first owner's family in 2006:

*"We have a large mural (the size of a door) with a bull and cow on it. The style looks the same as the painting with one buffalo on it (LS6818). My mom owned a shop in Springs selling gas appliances. Lucas Sithole needed gas appliances (geyser heater stove lights). There was no electricity in Kwa Thema in those days. He traded the mural for the appliances. Due to the (greater) value of the mural my mother paid in. It is now in Holland and will soon be in Hoorn, the town Jan van Riebeeck set sail from. Should you want a photo I can arrange to have it scanned to you."
(The photo was never sent, unfortunately!)*
