
Lucas SITHOLE - Images for which we need further particulars from current owners

Some works were submitted to various auctioneers for evaluation, but beyond the images, no further data is available. If you own one of these sculptures, please let us know title, year, medium, size, provenance and any HP or LS references found below the sculpture so that we can give the work a proper website, without mentioning your or previous owners' name. A proper webpage will enhance its value and proper identification! Contact info@pelmama.org with copy to pelmama.thf@gmail.com

From a private collection in Johannesburg – img Bonham's London 2010

From a private collection – img Bonhams London 2012

Waiting for the sun (Good morning sun) 93cm H

The sculpture represents a crippled and blind boy/man looking towards the sun

Will current owner please let us have provenance and other information to enable us to properly place the work on its own webpage – no owner's name is mentioned.

Img Strauss & Co., Johannesburg – 2012

Further information on Lucas SITHOLE

<http://www.sithole.com/>

http://www.sithole.com/Sithole_Mini_Master_Registry.htm

This document uploaded on 10th November, 2012 by The Haenggi Foundation Inc. – copyright holders